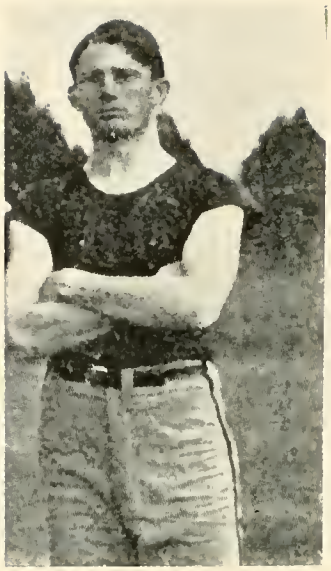
Let's take a look at Maryville College through its last 50 years of growth. Back in 1906 men still wore long pants for basketball uniforms, Fred Hope was graduated from Maryville College; and the first CHILHOWEAN was published. You may recognize our Dean of Curriculum, Dr. Hunter, in this picture from the 1931 CHILHOWEAN.



In 1931, Dr. Ralph W. Lloyd came to Maryville as President of the College. There were others of our present faculty members here, too. People were much the same then as as they are now, but their outward appearance was different.

We still have a baseball team, but it looks a little different, as do many other things around campus. However, the important things such as chapel, February meetings, and campus spirit never change. It is this that gives stability and security to our college.

A symbol of Maryville College tradition is Anderson Tower with its bell. Named for the founder of the college, this building represents for us past and present. Having seen some of Maryville's history, let us now look at the present.

THE PRESIDENT

The Lloyds at Maryville belong to and are as much a part of this campus' life as is the bell in Anderson Hall. This year marks their twenty-fifth successful year at this institution in the capacity of President and his First Lady. In keeping with this anniversary the CHILHOWEAN has endeavored to show some of the life that the Lloyds have lived, along with that of the many others who have attended this campus in one capacity or another up to this school year of 1955-56.

AND THE DEANS

FRANK DELOSS McCLELLAND
B.A., M.S., LL.D.

Well known for his efficiency in service, fairness with students, and sincere nature, Dr. McClelland, Dean of Students, is one of the many prides of Maryville College. Handling everything from the Dean's List to homesick freshmen, Dean McClelland is a tradition in the making.

EDWIN RAY HUNTER
B.A., M.A., Ph.D., Litt. D.

Friend, Professor, Church Leader, Author, Actor, and Dean of Curriculum are some of the many titles by which Dr. Hunter is known and admired. This man, who is one of the many open doors leading from student to faculty, has a genuine place in the heart of Maryville.

EDITH FRANCES MASSEY
B.A.

Being Dean of Women, Miss Massey earns the stars in her crown by being a central authority for all the women in the three dorms. She is known for her cordiality and level-mindedness. A real champion of each girl and boy on campus, she is admired by everyone. Dean Massey, who knows, perhaps best, the problems of Dormitory, and Town Students alike, is ever a source of good advice.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the representative group chosen by the student body from their own number to cooperate with the faculty and administration in carrying out the policies of the College, in establishing more satisfactory academic, spiritual and social programs, and in promoting matters of student interest. The council works closely with the Student-Faculty Senate, and through the senate with the Executive Council of the faculty. Of the twenty-four members on Student Council, two, the President and the Vice-President of the student body are elected from the classes by the classes. Four members are elected from both the freshman and sophomore classes, while five members each are elected from the two upper classes. From these representatives the President with the approval of council, appoints the chairmen of various committees, such as Student Organizations, Social, Pep, Athletic and others. The student members are appointed both from council and from the student body. Meeting weekly, this organization does its utmost to insure a properly functioning Student Government, and a well organized body of capable members attempts to speak well for the students it represents.

For the past two years previous to this, one of the main projects of council has been its reorganization. Last year the constitution was rewritten by a joint student-faculty committee, and the resulting document ratified by all concerned. During the same year, work began on the by-laws, which were to become a second document of the system of organization. This year has seen the completion of the writing of the by-laws, and the writing by the various committees of rules of procedure under which they will operate. Several committees have functioned successfully for the first time under the new system. In carrying out the functions of the organization, the Student Council attempts to regulate all-campus events, and to seriously consider those things which make for a better college and finer citizens.

With rose arbors, picket fences, and Spanish moss hanging from trees, Bainonian Society, with her brother society Kappa Phi, presented the Old South for the theme of Rush Week. In true Southern tradition the freshmen sashayed to a square dance ball and a formal show during these "Delta Days." Throughout all programs and events, Bainonian seeks to give expression to its original Greek meaning, "going forward." Its main purposes are to bring its members into closer fellowship and to advance their social and cultural development. A brief review of the 1955-1956 year in Bainonian reveals many worthwhile and enjoyable events which made the year a memorable one. The banquet in November with its Fall theme was a delightful occasion. In December the formal dance, presented with the joint sponsorship of Kappa Phi, was based on the four seasons with the title, "As Time Goes By." Skit Night also offered opportunity for fun, work, and an exhibition of talent. The joint meetings with Kappa Phi, the basketball and football games with Theta, and the entertaining programs each Saturday night all added to many unforgettable experiences.

Kappa Phi, the "society of friendship," is the oldest society on campus and has always looked to changing needs of the college community. Nine men came together on February 14, 1868 to form the society. Today it has over eighty members. This good heritage has given strength to the many changes. Just two years ago the society moved into its own house. Last year stuffed furniture added to the comfort of the members. It was at the end of that year that the Athenian Society became Kappa Phi. This year a TV set added a great deal to the program. Rush Week and the Fall Dance were put on with the aid of its sister society, Bainonian. Then was the show which honored six Bainonian seniors for their contributions to the college. Skit Night, the Spaghetti Dinner and Dance, the Stinking Shoe Classics, joint meetings, TV date nights and strong intramural program were some of the activities along with the regular meetings of home-grown talent, TV shows and speakers. These are but the externals, for the real good comes in the spirit of fellowship.

Rush Week was one of Theta's loudest activities this year as the freshmen girls were welcomed with tom-toms, war-cries and bright colors which were all a part of the Indian atmosphere. They were helped by their braves of Alpha Sigma, with whom they join in meetings several times each semester. Skit night is always important to the society. This can be seen by the fact that their skit has won first place three times in four years. Another activity is the annual Powderpuff Game. Football teams picked from both of the women's societies meet on the field of battle to see which can outdo the other. In the Spring Theta joined with Sig to present this year's Spring Dance, which met with success. Each year Alpha Sigma picks one girl from Theta as their Sweetheart and she is banked by several Cupids. This program is known as the Sweetheart Show and was reigned over this year by Natalie Richards. Theta has many good times in meetings, working on projects such as the Homecoming Float, and in genuine friendship.

THETA EPSILON

Indians, Peter Pan, Captain Hook and his "Gladiators" were focal points in the Alpha Sigma, Theta Epsilon Rush Week this year. Very shortly thereafter there followed the usual parade of Burlap Boys, otherwise known as initiates and Alpha Sigma had another crop of Freshmen under its protective wing. Endowing itself with a darkroom and a good radio (the darkroom is for photography), Sig quickly found its way into the activities of the campus. Known far and wide for its famous "Hammer" teams, Alpha Sigma has done very well in intramural sports.

The Splash Party in the pool was a drenching success as was the Spring Dance, which was given with its sister society Theta Epsilon. Miss Natalie Richards, who was chosen to be the fairest lady of Theta this year, was presented at the annual "Sweetheart" show. The Spaghetti Dinner and the Moonlight Hike are always popular with Sigs and their friends. Alpha Sigma was well entrenched behind our football team this fall with its effective cheering section. The cry of "Hammers Up" announces to all the presence of a Sig.

Y. W. C. A.

Of benefit to all concerned is the M.C. branch of the Y.W.C.A. open to all Maryville College women students and faculty desiring it. This year approximately 250 women are members. The Y.W., whose avowed purpose is the uniting of women students in a desire to realize the fullness of life through a knowledge of God and to help make this life possible for all people, fulfills this through its many worthwhile activities. This year was one of experimentation in cooperation with Y.M., involving closer committee work, and more joint Sunday programs. The publication of the "M Book" is a joint Y.M.-Y.W. project. Other activities of Y.W. are, helping with the Fred Hope Fund, Barnwarming and all its ensuing benefits, extensive work in the three local Home Missions, help with details on "Messiah" and Christmas Vespers, a hike to Montvale for relaxation, fellowship, and new spiritual stimulation, and the acquiring for the benefit of all the students special speakers such as Rev. Gustave Ferré and Dorothy Lee Ferris.

Corresponding to the Y.M.C.A. Ten Key Men program is Y.W.'s highly effective branch, Nu Gamma, consisting of fifteen sophomore girls who are well-qualified to bring help and welcome to incoming freshmen girls even before they arrive. These girls are chosen for their evident qualities of friendliness, leadership, and high Christian character. Their tasks consist of writing to the new girls before they arrive, explaining various things that may help them, of meeting them upon arrival, showing them around and of making themselves available throughout the year for personal consultation, good, staunch, free advice and a willing shoulder for dispelling minor frustrations. Some of the activities of the Nu Gamma leaders and their flocks are the interesting tea at Morningside, President Lloyd's residence in the woods, and the fabled Hen Party where men are present in word only. Nu Gamma is and always has been the freshman's source of information as to dorm life and will continue to serve the campus in this manner.

Y. M. C. A.

Maryville's "Y" is a very active organization not only on the campus but in the community also. There are many projects and responsibilities executed and claimed by our men's Y. Beginning the year in cooperation with the Y.W.C.A. and the college, there was an extensive welcome and orientation of all freshmen and other new students. This included the famed watermelon pow-wow. Immediately the big-little brother program was put into effect. Then the Y. settled down to its regular program of activities. This consisted of programs with and separate from the Y.W., mission work, Lenten pamphlets, participation in intramural sports, assisting Fred Hope Fund, handling various sports awards, operating the Y. store with Y.W., providing a Spring Retreat, helping with All-Campus Prayer Meetings, producing with the Y.W. Barnwarming, revision of their constitution, and many other activities throughout town and campus.

TEN KEY MEN

A very important branch of Y.M.C.A. program is the group called the Ten Key Men. Each year ten of the most qualified members of Y are chosen by the vice-president of that organization to participate most directly in the orientation program of the college. During the summer each man writes the various members of Y who have signed up to be a Big Brother to an incoming freshman, telling him the name and address of the novitiate. Whereupon, the Big Brother writes to his newly acquired Little Brother telling him the what's, why's and wherefore's of M.C. Later, these men participate largely in the directing of orientation on the campus, which, of course, includes the watermelon pow-wow. The responsibility of making newcomers to this campus feel at ease and at home rests heavily on these men and other members of Y. They accomplish this through their extended efforts through the year in their examples, their ready helping hand and their abilities acquired in their previous years of experience in and on the Maryville College Campus.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

The Student Volunteer Movement on the Maryville campus is composed of all students who are interested in missions and missionaries. The programs of Vols are varied and interesting. Speakers from all over America and many foreign countries wend their ways to the MC campus to speak for a Vols meeting. Films taken in other lands are often shown during Vols' regular Sunday night meeting and are highly informative and educational. Discussions among the members themselves on some Sundays prove beneficial to those in attendance. At least once a semester Vols meet just to sing favorite hymns. The purpose of Student Vols is twofold. That is to stimulate able students to go themselves into the mission field, if they are so inclined, or to serve in any way with time, talent, and gifts to further the witness of Christ to the "ends of the earth." This purpose is accomplished by the programs and by other participations in retreats, special weekday programs and other endeavors.

PRE-MINISTERIAL ASS'N

The Pre-Ministerial Association on the Maryville College Campus is composed of all students who are studying for the Ministry of Christ and who care to affiliate themselves with others of like purpose. Meeting twice a month, the Pre-Mins are fortunate in that they have representatives from the various seminaries and other highly interesting and beneficial speakers come and take part in their meetings. Among its activities are its regular meetings, participation in the intramural sport program, collecting seminary catalogues to help members make wise choices, an annual Spring Banquet and many others. The motto of this organization and also its purpose is "Study to show thyself approved unto God." This is done not only in the classroom but also in helping others. The Pre-Mins are active in the All-Campus Devotions committee and also visit the local jail on Sundays to sing, preach, and discuss the problems of the inmates. During the Easter Holy Week this organization has charge of the noon services for everyone.

McKamey, Easley, Kelton, Brasfield, Munson, Duvall, Williams.

The Women's Student Government Association of Maryville College is an organization of self government for the women living on the campus. Its purpose is two-fold. It creates a sense of responsibility to other students and to the college itself. It also allows women students to participate in the administration of dormitory life. The way this organization is set up allows representation from every class. Two representatives are elected from each class to attend the bi-weekly meetings. These meetings usually hold for its members vivid discussion of any immediate problems that may arise. If, in the course of time, a regulation is proved obsolete or impractical, this organization takes steps to revise the rule or see to it that something is done to alleviate the situation. The duties of the W.S.G.A. are to see to it that all rules are adhered to, to inflict penalties if and when they are necessary and to insure proper functioning of the Town Night agreement. W.S.G.A. has been striving to become more closely connected with the Student Council, the implement of total student government. It is hoped that in the near future some kind of association may be entered into that will put the two organizations in very close harmony in affairs of government. Meanwhile W.S.G.A. will continue to work with the women and the faculty to see to it that a good situation exists between these groups relating to activities on and off campus.

One of the prides of Maryville College and probably the most famous of all its organizations is the Vesper Choir. This vocal group of sixty members is picked each fall by the director through very extensive try-outs. The Choir, in the absence of its regular director, Mr. Harry H. The Choir is adept, not only in performing sacred music, but also in delightful folk and contemporary pieces, as well. There is great satisfaction in listening to this group perform in its Spring Concert, at Vespers, and on its several recordings.

The Maryville College Band is an organization made up of those desiring to represent M.C. musically at football games and on the campus in general. Under the lively direction of Mr. Ralph Moore, the "Highlanders" attain no small degree of excellency in their performances, no matter what the season. This year marks the third anniversary of the new uniforms and they seem to have been used in a manner quite becoming their color and comeliness. After football season draws to a close and a new semester begins, our band becomes one of the concert variety. An annual Spring Concert is always popular with students and visitors alike. WRITERS' WORKSHOP

An original literary organization of note on our campus is Writer's Workshop. Organized in 1921, this organization has since offered an excellent opportunity for creative writing among students and faculty. Twenty-five persons comprise a full membership and these are chosen from the junior and senior classes and from among the faculty as well. New members are chosen by secret ballot to take the places of those graduating. Only persons with some ability and interest are considered for membership. Each semester all members submit one original manuscript to the group for criticism. They also take their turn at criticizing another work before the group. The organization is headed by a governing board who handle the details of membership and conduct the meetings. Each year editors are chosen to compile and publish a new "Chips," the official record of the year's best pieces. "Chips" is made available to the students and is widely enjoyed by those purchasing it. Writer's Workshop closes its yearly activities by choosing and initiating its new members.

The "Highland Echo," the official Maryville College newssheet, edited this year by Barbara Wilkie, is the students' publication and strives to present campus news as interestingly and as thoroughly as possible. Coming out usually every week, the "Echo" announces things of local and campus interests. Visitors on campus, athletic events, comments on world affairs, highlights from the four societies, books, movies, humor and serious editorials are all present in each edition of the "Echo." To become a member of the "Echo" staff, trial service must be undergone for a stated period of time. Novitiates must be approved by the standing staff and the student-faculty Publications Committee. The Editor is elected each spring for the coming year by members of the staff.

We've shown you life as it was in Dr. Lloyd's student days and we hope we've shown you the people, events, and incidents that have that peculiar ring of longevity about them. We hope you will recall, in years to come, the real people, the characters that make our residence in four years here a full one. We have attempted to show that the past and the present aren't really so far apart. In looking over our fellows and their activities in this book, we discover that life at M. C. fifty years ago had its gladness much the same as that which we experience now. There will be many more Mr. Oranges and Miss Garnets, Barnwarmings and Homecomings, but here are the people you knew and the events you experienced. Here's hoping that our children use our pictures and our experiences many years hence in producing a book of past and present—all in one.

THE MARYVILLE COLLEGE ANNUAL

Our Business Staff, complete with its long list of necessities and jobs, under the able direction and guidance of Dr. F. A. Griffitts of the faculty, cooperates closely with the Editorial Staff in producing the CHILHOWEAN. The Business Manager, who is in charge of selling the advertisements found in the back of this book, has his crew to assist him in his dealings with the various merchants and other business men and with the many details of paper and book-work. The Junior Class publishes this book yearly, and is proud to serve the college in this tangible manner. Both the Editorial Staff and the Business Staff of the 1956 CHILHOWEAN wish to inform the readers of this annual that it is with a measure of gladness we present this to you as an impetus to pleasant memories of Maryville College and all that it holds for its students and friends. We enjoy it even now and we hope that you will say the same fifty years from now.

FOOTBALL

Enthusiasm was high as the single-wing Highlanders of Maryville College embarked on the tiring journey to Jacksonville State, Alabama, for the season's curtain-raiser. An experienced line was returning with such stalwarts as Strickland, Wheatley, Godfrey, Bivins, Hawkins, Dunn, Moore, Clemens, Hutsell, and Beam, whose average weight was well over two hundred pounds. Behind them was a backfield without the services of Little All-American Clarence Shepard. But tailbacks McCall and Sparks; fullback Buddy White; wingback Smith; and blocking backs Renfro and Alford formed a formidable crew. Maryville played a spirited game against the polished Teachers who had defeated Chattanooga U the previous week-end. Early in the game the Highlanders had the ball on the five-yard line with four full downs to hit paydirt. When they failed to score, the balloon of pep and spirit was punctured and the Scotties went through the motions in four straight defeats: 0-7 to Jacksonville, 0-17 to the undefeated Centre Colonels, 18-28 to ETSC, and a dissension-bred 0-44 pasting by the Wasps of Emory and Henry. The remainder of the season the bark of rejuvenated Scotties was heard from Alabama to West Virginia. Two touchdowns by Gordy Sparks led Maryville to a 20-12 victory over the rugged University of Tennessee freshmen. The bruised Scotties then came from behind late in the second quarter to defeat Howard of Alabama, 21-12. Arch-rival Carson-Newman disappointed Maryville's Homecoming fans as they won, 13-17 although the Scotties grabbed the lead temporarily through a 54-yard McCall to Dunn T.D. pass. Concord State of West Virginia was defeated 13-6, ending an interesting season in which Captain-elect Buddy White made Little All-American Honorable mention.

BASKETBALL

Losing all but center Bill Wallace from last year's starting five, a rebuilding program was in demand. The Highlander quintet found the combination of "greenness," lack of height, and "bench blues" too much to overcome for a winning season. Maryville was defeated by Milligan 79-67, Tusculum 76-64, and King 76-72 before stomping the McGhee Tyson Air Force Base 89-52. After Christmas, the team picked up added height and spirit, and started winning their share of games. After losing to King 73-70, they outshot Chattanooga 78-69 and Hiwassee 74-63.

But playing perhaps their poorest game of the season, they were defeated by a close-knit Hiwassee squad in a return engagement, 66-60. After losing to Tusculum again, the Scotties defeated the Wasps of Emory-Henry before a happy home crowd. Several of the college's best ball players chose to play in the fast Intramural League, hurting the varsity's chances for a spectacular season. But with 6'3" Wallace and a 6'4" trio of Dunn, Gregory, and Saunders, the team found rebound strength and showed occasional class. Playmaker French improved tremendously, as did "Floorman" DeLozier, set-shot artist West and "Flea" Crouch at the guard shots. Underclassmen Ferguson, Smith, and Flynn will be instrumental in future Maryville victories.

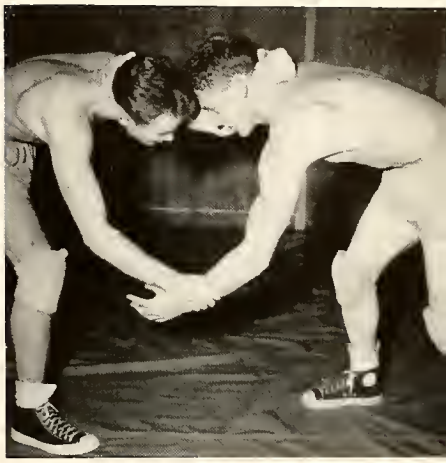
W R E S T L I N G



Coach Davis faced the 1956 season with an experienced group of grapplers and a resulting gleam in his eye. But injuries, sickness, grades and outside interests gnawed at Maryville's chances of a Southeastern wrestling championship. John Hawkins, "Crow" Renfro, Dick Jones, Tom Bugenhagen (former SEC champ), Roy Myers, "Turkey" Templin, Don Moore, and Bob Clemens were lost to the Scotties. But Captain Jerry Waters was back at 123 lbs. and eager to defend his Southeastern title. Booty Miller, perhaps the outstanding groaner, was a dependable winner in the 130 class.

First Row: Tom, Waters, Miller, Lumberg, Cummings, Nabors, Williamson. Second Row: Patterson, Anderson, Atkin, Axely, Hill, Emery.

Jim Cummings, a four-year veteran, was hampered by injuries at 137, but proved a top-notch wrestler. Don Nabors, West Virginia champion in high school, did well, at 147, while Max Williamson overcame a weight deficit in the 157-lb. class. A strong freshman with no previous experience, Don Hill improved rapidly in the 167 division, and strong John Anderson flexed at 177. Sonny Axley showed future promise as a heavyweight, while 110-lb. Tom Tom made the rest of the starving team jealous as he ate heartily and tried to increase his weight. Maryville lost two close decisions to the well-conditioned Knoxville "Y," 18-16, and after tying Chattanooga 18-18, lost to the powerful defending champs of Auburn U 20-7. Remaining tests, including Chattanooga, Emory, Sewanee and the SEAAU Tournament at Sewanee, are faced by an improving crew.

B A S E B A L L

The Honakermen opened the 1955 season by slashing fourteen hits en route to a 11-14 decision over King. Tusculum ended this abbreviated winning streak, 1-7, despite two hits by Ramger. Another modest winning streak was underway with victories over L.M.U. 7-6 and E.T.S.C. 8-7, with Ramger collecting five safeties in the two battles. Sexton got three singles in a 4-6 loss to Emory and Henry. Then Ramger pitched a three-hit victory over Carson-Newman 5-2. Then, with a respectable 4-2 slate, the "Black Days" set in. Six straight losses were recorded. L.M.U. came from behind to pull an 8-9 verdict out of the fire, with Moore, Sexton and Dent collecting two hits apiece. Tennessee Wesleyan, undaunted by rainy weather, won out 3-6. The U. T. Freshmen were victorious 2-8, with Maryville swinging from the heels and striking out twelve times. Next, it was U. T. Varsity's turn 2-6, with Sexton often left stranded on base. The safeties of Shelton, Shepard and Dent weren't enough to squelch the determination of Carson-Newman as the Eagles won 3-6. Evans and Yonkers led the way with two hits apiece, but Maryville was this time stomped by Emory and Henry 2-11. The sun shone again as Maryville loosed an eleven-hit attack against their "cousins," and defeated King College, 6-2. The final game of the year was a 3-6 loss to a fine U. T. squad. The 5-9 record was not impressive, with Delozier winning three games and Ramger, two. But the brand of ball was interesting and often exciting and there is good reason for the cry, "Wait 'til next year!"

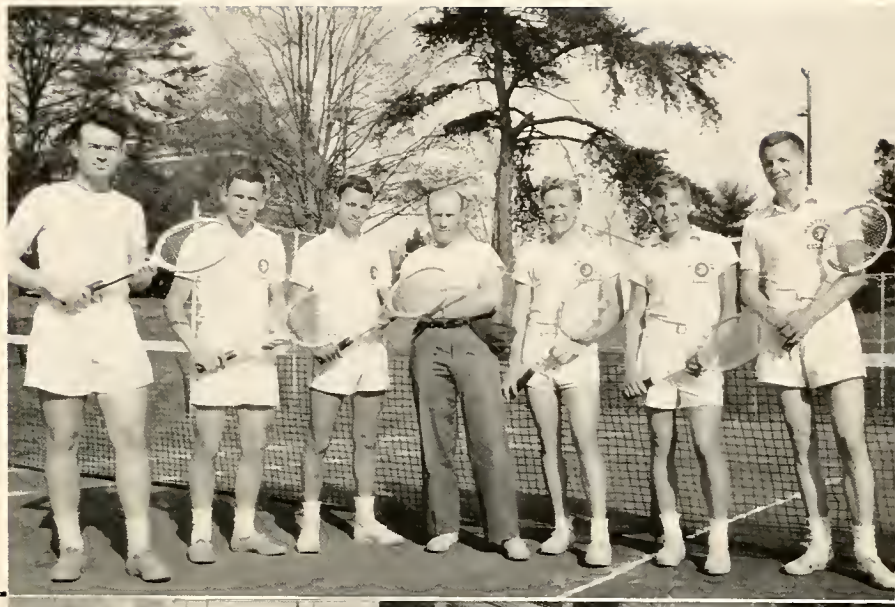
T E N N I S

A balanced sextet, Nier, Shackelford, Brian, Young, Partee, and White, represented Maryville during the 1955 season. After a 0-9 whitewashing by U. T., the Scots blanked Tennessee Wesleyan 9-0. The team then was defeated by U. T. again 0-4, High Point College, 2-5, Sewanee 3-6, E.T.S.C. 1-8, and Chattanooga 3-4. Meanwhile the netmen tied E. T.S.C. 4-4, salvaged two matches from bitter-foe Carson-Newman, 6-2 and 6-3, and nipped Milligan 5-4.



Partee, Shackelford, Brian, Coach Johnson, Young, Nier, White.

Johnson, Crane, Sherrod, Hughes, Quinn.

Maryville athletes exhibit their skills and get in shape through well-organized intramurals. Keen competition and good sportsmanship are stimulated by Coach Johnson and a Y.M.C.A. Sportsmanship trophy. Alpha Sigma dominated the '55-'56 Intramurals by going undefeated in touch-football and defeating the Y's Guys in Soccer 1-0. Sig also led in basketball. Following these sports comes wrestling, volleyball, softball, badminton, swimming, and track.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC

There's a huddle, hands piled up in the center, a cheer, "A Winner never quits and a quitter never wins, Yea Chillies," and the girls run out on the floor to begin another tournament. It's volleyball this time but before the year is over they'll be going through this same routine for soccer, basketball, and softball. These girls are the members of the Women's Athletic Association that meet at 3:30 two afternoons a week. All girls on campus are gladly invited and often urged to come out for this sports program. The reason that they are urged can be seen in regarding their purpose. The activities are designed to produce a total fitness and to develop the most desirable and attractive physical, mental, and social qualities, and provide a very enjoyable use of leisure time. After several weeks, volleyball is over. The Howies won this time, but next time who can tell? The end of the year usually finds both teams about equal in ability and much better off for their year's experiences.

First Row: Cooper, Cutler, Dean, Byrne, Franklin. Second Row: Hunter, Jerkins, Woods, Polhemus, Morris, Mitchell, Marston. Third Row: Worster, Burton, Crane, Henry, Murphy, Murphey, Davis.

ASSOCIATION

H-O-W-I-E-S, Howies, Yea! The 4:40 girls are out on the floor. This is the other section of the Women's Athletic Association. In addition to the four major sports the girls compete individually in stunts, track, and swimming. Anyone for a duck-walk? You can at least try a jack knife dive. It's all in the game. There's a personal side to the program, too. All the girls are expected to keep a number of health rules. These are all in line with the total program. Hikes are another important activity. All the girls have fond memories of hikes around the "loop." Any hour of the day Blount County residents are likely to see a group of girls out on their way around. A record was established in 1954 for 52 minutes from start to finish. This is the unusual instead of the ordinary however. As compensation for all their efforts the girls are awarded points. At the end of the year these are totalled, bringing a letter, a sweater, or both, and membership in the Women's M Club. This is an excellent program for all girls on the Hill.

ELIZABETH MURPHEY
President

WOMEN'S "M" CLUB

For women sports participants is the Women's "M" Club. This organization is made up of all women who compile 400 or more points through competition in what is known as Women's Varsity. Letters and sweaters are worn by members, signifying their ability in the athletic realm. In addition to athletic activities two hours a week, the members meet monthly for business discussions and to enjoy some athletic competition together. The high spot of the club's activities is the weekend hike in the Smoky Mountains once each semester. These girls draw much value from their activities and are interested in having in their number any and all women students qualified and willing to participate in good, healthy fun. Some undertakings have resulted in beneficial ends for the whole college as well as for the girls themselves. They clean up areas, at times, of our College Woods, and sometimes serve for other improvements. The Women's "M" Club of Maryville College seems soundly founded on sound minds and bodies.

First Row: Myers, Alison, Cutler, Murphey, Crane, Davis, Jefferson. Second Row: Jerkins, Renner, Burton, Franklin, Byrne, Cooper, Gray, Priest, Woods.

First Row: White, Gilbert, Dunn, Cummings, Wheatley. Second Row: Waters, Miller, Wilson, Godfrey, McCall, West.

The Men's "M" Club is open to all varsity lettermen, and male members of the coaching staff. Membership is coveted, as it is only those who fulfill certain requirements that may become members. These requirements are to win a varsity letter and prove worth as an all-around sportsman. The purpose of the organization is to further the bonds of athletic brotherhood on the Maryville campus, to be of service to the school and the athletic program, and to increase loyalty to the best interests of the College. The club brings together different types of athletes in a firm fellowship and worthwhile organization. Working together, these men enjoy meeting, planning, and organizing worthwhile projects and recreation. Composed of men in the true sense of the word, the Maryville College "M" Club is a good representation of the type of men we hold up to our competitors on the playing field as our conception of real sports. We feel them worthy of our "M."

MEN'S "M" CLUB

Eight Cheerleaders this year, four boys and four girls, did their noble part for our football and basketball teams. New cheers were introduced early and pep has been their watchword. This year's cheerleaders were picked by the student body from a large number of hopefuls. They have "howled" all over the place and have been instrumental in gaining for M.C. a new spirit.

Top: Munson, Rise, Richman, Hill.
Bottom: Kennedy, Borter, Morris, Brian.

Front: Rise, Garrison, McDonald. Back: Cummings, Brian.

During the football season the Pep Committee operates with dexterity for the good of our team and its patrons as well as for our visitors. They have the assignments of seeing that the field is decorated properly of organizing parades, pep rallies, post-game dances and the big event of the season, the Homecoming Weekend. They are invariably very successful.

THE MARYVILLE COLLEGE MAID SHOP

Maryville College is proud to have its name carried to many parts of the world under the label of the College Maid Shop. In war and peace, College Maid has served well the many individuals and agencies that look to her for nurses' uniforms.

The Maid Shop is a vital part of the Student Help program, but making money is not the only service to the college girls. Thru the use of shop equipment College Maids are able to make many of their own clothes and the clothes for others. The shop is proud of the expert seamstresses it has produced and many comments from satisfied customers attest to the value and efficiency of this training.
